

FOUR ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH FIRE AT FREETOWN

Dewey Beavers, Dan Cline and Howard Greer, of Bedford, and Wm. Reedy, of Terre Haute, Held.

REMOVED TO COUNTY JAIL

Ownership of Abandoned Automobile Traced to Greer Through License Number Plate.

MEN MAINTAIN INNOCENCE

Reedy Formerly Lived in Freetown and is Said to Have Visited Former Home Last Week.

Four men were arrested at Bedford Tuesday night in connection with the fire and alleged robbery at the general store of John W. Sprague at Freetown, early Tuesday morning, and were brought to the Jackson county jail at Brownstown this morning.

The men under arrest are: William Reedy, aged forty-two, of Terre Haute.

Daniel Cline, aged forty-one, of Bedford.

Dewey Beavers, aged thirty, of Bedford.

Howard Greer, aged forty, of Bedford.

Reedy, Cline and Beavers, who are suspected of entering the Sprague store, were handcuffed together and were brought to Brownstown by Harvey L. McCord, Jackson county sheriff, and Mr. Sprague, Greer, the alleged owner of the abandoned automobile found two miles west of Freetown, was brought to the Jackson county jail by J. V. Stapp, chief of police at Bedford.

The arrests were made at Bedford between 5 o'clock and midnight Tuesday at the request of the Jackson county authorities. Greer is said to have admitted that he loaned or rented his automobile to the three men, but denied that he knew where they intended to go. The other three men under arrest insist that they are not implicated in the Freetown robbery.

The license number plate which was found on the abandoned automobile was taken to the office of Sheriff McCord Tuesday afternoon and he telephoned to the secretary of state to ascertain the ownership of the car. The engine number of the machine recorded in the secretary of state's office corresponds with that on the motor of the abandoned machine. Sheriff McCord asked Will Owens, sheriff of Lawrence county, to question Greer about the automobile. He admitted he had given it to the three men. The arrest of the trio was made during the night. Reedy was found in the dry beer place at Bedford.

Reedy, it is said, formerly lived in Freetown, and was reported to have spent the major part of last week in that vicinity.

Following the fire residents there began hunting for possible evidence and the abandoned automobile truck was found two miles west of the town. Near the machine ten sacks containing 108 pairs of shoes, identified as a part of the stock of the Sprague store, were found concealed under a bridge. During the morning Tuesday a report was received that three men had telephoned from Heltonville to Bedford for a taxi cab.

It develops that the call for the taxi was received by Albert Smith, of Bedford, who operates a taxi service there. He is said to have identified Cline as the man who paid him for the trip upon the arrival in Bedford from Heltonville. He paid no special attention to the other two men, it is said, and would not positively identify them as passengers he carried.

It was first reported that the men seen at Heltonville carried suit cases, but the trio under arrest had no baggage when they reached Bedford, it is said. It is presumed that they concealed the suit cases before they entered the taxi cab.

The statement of Greer was taken this afternoon by S. B. Lowe, prosecuting attorney. Later he was to be taken to Freetown to see the auto-

CRIME WAVE HERE BELIEVED BROKEN

No Reports of Holdups or Attempts at Robbery Have Come to Police for Several Days.

PRECAUTION IS EXERCISED

Members of Regular Police Force and a Number of Deputized Officers Maintain Watch.

The crime wave in this city is believed to have been broken. No holdups or attempts at burglary have come to the police for several days and the authorities have reason to believe that the situation is well in hand.

However, there is to be no let-up in the vigilance that is to be maintained here. In addition to the regular police force between thirty and fifty citizens have been sworn in as special police officers and have full authority to act. The special officers are scattered throughout the city and are keeping watch not only for major offenses such as burglaries and holdups but for evidences of disorderly conduct.

The special policemen are on duty at many places. It is believed that the action of the city administration and council in organizing such a force has had splendid effect. An illustration of value of the auxiliary force was recently reported to the police.

Several young men were engaging in loud talk and their behavior came closely to unbecoming conduct on the street. As the talk became louder and rougher, two of the group cautioned the others to keep quiet.

"You know there are a bunch of special officers on duty now and maybe one of them will show up here any time. You fellows had better quiet down before you get into trouble," admonished one member of the crowd.

The members of the crowd didn't know it, but at least one special officer was within hearing all the time. Other instances which tend to show that the appointment of the auxiliary force is having the right effect have been reported to the police department.

The special police officers live or are employed in every part of the city, it is explained, and will be ready to respond quickly in case of trouble in the vicinity where they reside. A list of the members of the auxiliary force is kept on file at the police station night and day for ready reference so that any member may be called quickly. It is believed that with such a plan in operation it will be more difficult for a robber or bandit to escape after his presence in any part of the city becomes known. The members of the auxiliary force, it is emphasized, were not selected at random but were chosen after the exercise of care and judgment. This was necessary, it is stated, so that there would be no attempt made to misuse the power given them.

Seymour and Jackson county have been exceptionally fortunate in apprehending criminals who have operated here. In some cities offenses and crimes have been committed and the criminals have escaped without leaving any clues.

A suggestion has been made that a rural police force be organized, similar to the auxiliary police force in this city. Such a plan would have to be worked out by the sheriff, with the co-operation of the chief of police here and the marshals in other towns in the county. Such a constabulary force is maintained in some states. The members would have full police powers and such an organization would be found helpful in preventing bandits from escaping to other counties. The rural policemen would be located throughout the county and the sheriff in case of call would know exactly who to summons for assistance.

WOLVES APPEAR IN MARTIN COUNTY VICINITY

Two Large Timber Wolves Have Killed Considerable Stock for Farmers Near Shoals.

Farmers living in the neighborhood of Shoals, Martin county, are greatly alarmed over the appearance of two large gray timber wolves that have already killed some valuable stock. The animals have been seen several times and a number of shots have been fired at them from a long range without effect. Several dogs set on the trail of them have failed to return. Residents say that they have been there several months. Some are inclined to believe that they have escaped from the West Baden shows and others believe that they have come all the way from Pennsylvania. A posse has been formed on several occasions to drive out the wolves or capture them with no results.

PEACE IN IRELAND APPARENTLY NEAR

Passage of Home Rule Measure Marked Culmination of Long Fight by Irish Leaders.

TWO PARLIAMENTS PROVIDED

Ireland Must Accept Bill With Three And Half Years or it Becomes Void.

By United Press.

London, December 22—All lines in the Irish conflict with Great Britain seemed to converge toward peace today. Passage of the home rule bill, to which King George was expected to give royal assent today marked the culmination of a long fight by Irish leaders although the bill was not what had been demanded. It was hoped the measure would bring peace. The bill provides for two parliaments, north and south—with a connecting link in the shape of a council of forty to be selected evenly from two parliaments.

Ireland must accept the measure within three and a half years or it becomes void.

Encouraging signs from the government were announced that the "president" Eamon De Valera will not be arrested if he returns to Ireland and announcement that General Tador commander of the auxiliary police had gone on indefinite leave.

A raid on the Cork postoffice by robbers stopped by police after one robber had been killed was reported by the military today. An official announcement on the engagements near Killeenale in which 18 lives were lost said that the battle consisted of several fights after a cycle patrol had been ambushed.

Great Britain is considering instituting martial law over all Ireland, Sir Hamar Greenwood, told the house of commons today.

Greenwood announced this shortly after crown forces in Dublin took possession of the mansion and other principal buildings. Heretofore martial law has been in effect only in the southwestern counties with Cork as the administrative center.

In the last two weeks, however, disturbances have broken out in the counties bordering Ulster.

POSES AT JACKSONVILLE AS EDDIE RICKENBACKER

Marries Society Girl, Victimizes Several Business Men and Then Leaves City.

By United Press.

Jacksonville, Fla., December 22.—After posing as Eddie Rickenbacker, the famous American ace, and marrying Frances Hannan, one of Jacksonville's prominent society girls, and victimizing a number of prominent men of hundreds of dollars, an unidentified man departed for parts unknown, taking with him his bride of two days and cash estimated at more than $2,000.

The imposter was elaborately entertained at clubs and social functions. Several days ago he arrived in Jacksonville. Two days afterward he met Miss Hannan, daughter of a prominent business man, and they announced their engagement last Sunday. The same night they went to St. Augustine, where they were married.

While here, he signed a contract with W. M. Farans, said to be sales manager of a brass manufacturing company of Philadelphia appointing him manager of the Stutz Motor Car Company at a salary of $25,000 a year. After the appointment was accepted the imposter borrowed $1,000 from Farans. The real Rickenbacker was said to be in California.

PROTECTIVE "WING" WILL BE EXTENDED

Raw Materials and Many Manufactured Products Included in Emergency Tariff Bill.

"NEW PARTY" SHOWS PALMER

Bi-Partisan Coalition of Representatives to Overwhelm Veto By President.

By United Press.

Washington, December 22—Undismayed by reports of a probable presidential veto and of senate opposition, the "new party" in the house—the bi-partisan coalition of western and southern representatives—today began the work of jamming through the emergency tariff bill on agricultural products.

So powerful has been the "new party" that it has forced the ways and means committee to frame a tariff measure—usually the work of months—in two days.

The emergency schedules established rates so high that a virtual embargo on the importation of the products would be effected.

Leaders of the "new party" the strength of which has alarmed members from the eastern manufacturing sections, claim that the bill will receive sufficient votes in the house to assure its passage over a presidential veto. Test votes indicate the majority will be nearly 3 to 1. Plans are to have the bill forced through the senate within two weeks, but this is rather doubtful because of Democratic opposition there.

In the house it is probable the democrats will cast aside their historic antipathy to protective tariff. The first move of the farmer tariff makers in the house today will be to seek a rule that will prevent the burdening of the bill with numerous amendments to extend its "protective wing" to other raw materials and many manufactured products.

Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee estimates that the majority bill will produce about $130,000,000 in revenue. The products included in the bill are wheat, flour, corn, beans, peanuts, potatoes, onions, rice, lemons, peanuts, cottonseed and soy bean oil, cattle, sheep, lamb, frozen mutton and lamb, wool, and wool manufactures.

The importation of these products amounts to only about one fortieth of the home consumption. The total value of the products included is placed by the department at about $4,000,000,000 while the imports the last year amounted to only $40,222,000.

Proponents of the bill point out that importations of wheat from Canada and Argentina this year have amounted to 15,050,966 bushels.

Corn, rice and other crops are estimated to be larger this year and consequently will suffer in increased degree by importations advocates of the bill contended.

MASKED BANDITS HOLDUP AND ROB TRACTION CONDUCTOR

Men Board Train at Suburban Stop Revolvers Drawn on Passengers.

By United Press.

Richmond, Ind., December 22.—Two masked bandits held up and robbed the conductor of a Dayton & Western electric train at a suburban station near here last night. The men boarded the train and while one relieved the conductor of his money the second forced the passengers to stand at attention. A passenger who endeavored to stop the men leaving the car was shot at but not hit. The bandits escaped.

Venice Pier Destroyed.

Venice, Cal., December 22.—The world famous Venice pleasure pier, fourteen miles from Los Angeles, was wiped out by a fire which was brought under control early today. ## INAUGURATION DAY PLANS ANNOUNCED

Woodrow Wilson and President Harding Will Lunch at White House Just After Ceremony.

WILSON'S HEALTH IMPROVED

Secretary Tumulty Says Recovery is More Rapid With Relief From Burden of Worry.

By United Press.

Washington, December 22—Woodrow Wilson and President Warren G. Harding will lunch together at the White House following the formal inauguration at noon on March 4, according to plans announced today. Immediately after that luncheon the man who has lived in the executive mansion for eight years will go to his new home at 2340 S. Street.

Secretary Tumulty announced the President's plans for inauguration day, following a conference with his chief. The President, Tumulty said, plans to ride to the capitol from the White House in company with Senator Harding. After ceremonies at the capitol they will return for luncheon at the White House. Tumulty said the President's health has improved greatly during the last two weeks and he is planning to plunge into the series of articles and books immediately after he leaves the presidency. The President did not mention any plans for an autobiography or memoirs, Tumulty said.

"The President was in an exceptionally good humor," Tumulty said in commenting on their talk. "The President got around well and no case was visible," he said.

He said he thought that the President had been helped in recovering because he had been relieved of much worry since November.

KANSAS INDUSTRIAL COURT ACTION IS FAR REACHING

Judge Huggins Says no Hard and Fast Rule Can Be Laid Down for Every Industry.

By United Press.

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 22—Decision of the Kansas Court of Industrial relations in the relation in the Topeka flour mills case in which it was set down that essential industries must continue to provide employment for their "faithful and skilled employees" even in dull periods when partial shut downs are necessary is generally considered the most far reaching step yet taken by the new Kansas tribunal.

W. L. Huggins, presiding judge, who wrote the opinion, explained that no hard and fast rule could be established that would apply to every industry and that would define just what men an industry would have to keep on its pay rolls in a shut down but said circumstances of every case would have to govern. He explained that under the opinion the court takes the stand that when capital invests in an essential industry it assumes an obligation to the public and must submit to such reasonable regulations as will protect the rights of the public.

It also assumes the responsibility he said, to maintain its force of workmen in steady employment and in times when conditions have to be faced which force partial curtailment of production, it must keep its organization together to such an extent that it will be able to serve the public to its fullest capacity when times and condition again become normal.

Judge Huggins used a hypothetical case to explain.

"Let us suppose that a flour mill regularly employs fifty men" he said. "Let us say that under conditions like those which the Kansas millers are now facing they are unable to run their mills full time. We will say that 35 of the 50 men they have employed are men who are skilled, who have been faithful in the performance of their duties, and who are essential to the operation of the mill under normal conditions. Then it is up to the mill management to provide these 35 men with work and keep them and their families going until such time as they again become essential in the operation of the mill and in the producing of necessities."

OPEN SHOP DRIVE IS IN PROGRESS

Manufacturers Serve Notice That Intensive Campaign Against Closed Shop is Underway.

CONVENTION IS CALLED

Head of Illinois Manufacturers Association Takes Initiative in Nationwide Movement.

By United Press.

Chicago, December 22—Manufacturers of the nation today served notice on union labor that the intensive drive against the closed shop had started, when William Butterworth issued a call for a convention of big employers of the country.

Butterworth is head of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association, and president of the chamber of commerce of the U. S. and president of the National Conference of Manufacturers Association comprised of employers in the following States, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin. He conferred with President-elect Harding yesterday.

Butterworth in an open letter today attacked the plan of the railway Brotherhoods who he said, demand the establishment of a national board of adjustment to handle all labor troubles instead of the individuals companies handling their own industrial affairs.

Butterworth said if the Brotherhoods succeed in their plan it would influence all other industries.

"The plan of the brotherhoods means the closed shop and union domination over all industries alike," Butterworth said. "This is the most vital question facing the manufacturing and producing interests of the country today and should have immediate attention."

The brotherhoods want to establish the adjustment board under authority of congress which provides for a national labor board having jurisdiction over railway employees wages when controversies are appealed to it. The act provides the board may be established by agreement of labor and employers.

Butterworth called a convention of the national conference of state manufacturers association to be held here January 12. The conference will be in protest of the stand of the brotherhoods.

Butterworth invited the following big employers of labor to be present at the conference:

Elbert H. Gary president of the United States Steel corporation; Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel company; Dwight W. Morrow, of J. P. Morgan & Co.; F. A. Seiberling, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and Charles Piez, former head of the emergency fleet corporation. It was indicated by Butterworth that the immigration problem is one of vexation to American industry and will be discussed at the conference.

Robert M. Buck, editor of the New Majority, leading labor paper in the middle west, said labor was aware of the fight on the closed shop and was prepared to go the limit.

Manufacturers, sweeten the open shop proposition by calling it the "American plan," said Buck. "The open shop, if established would mean the end of organized labor. This fight is vital to our interests."

PLACE AS SECRETARY OF STATE OFFERED HUGHES

Only Condition That He Assist in Forming a New World Association of Nations.

By United Press.

Washington, December 22—Charles Evans Hughes has received a conditional offer to become secretary of state in the Harding cabinet and is considering it, it was learned on high authorities here today. The condition attached to the offer was said to be that Hughes should work with Senator Harding in establishing a new association of nations and casting aside the league of nations as set up in the treaty of Versailles.

Heretofore Hughes has held that the league covenant should be amended to strike out the clauses to which its opponents objected, notably article X.

CARLISLE BANK ROBBED OF $600 BY UNMASKED MEN

Bookkeeper Wounded When He Attempts to Halt Bandits Who Escape in Auto.

Carlisle, Ind. December 22.—Two unmasked bandits held up the People's State Bank here late yesterday afternoon and escaped in a fusillade of bullets with from $600 to $800 in cash, after shooting Ezra Latshaw, 36 years old, a bookkeeper for the institution, when he attempted to halt the robbers as they were leaving. Latshaw is in a hospital in Sullivan with a bullet wound in his abdomen. Physicians say his wound is not serious.

One of the bandits is believed to have been wounded in the hand or arm by Perry Wolfe, a farmer of Shaker Prairie, as he dropped his revolver in his flight. Wolfe fired six shots at the robbers as they dashed toward the automobile in which they escaped.

The robbery is the boldest ever committed here. The men entered the bank a few minutes before time for closing. Both had revolvers drawn. Louis K. Kixmiller, cashier; Miss Waneta Lockhart, assistant bookkeeper; Frank Ridgeway, a farmer, and Edley W. Rogers, a newspaper publisher, were forced into a corner of the room, and while one bandit kept them covered with revolvers, the other rifled the cash drawers.

Shortly before the bandits entered the place, the inner doors of the vault had been locked. At the point of a revolver, Cashier Kixmiller was ordered to open the place and he was working with the combination when one of the bandits, who saw some one peering into the window, called to his pal to hurry for an escape.

Latshaw was returning from the postoffice and as he passed a window in front of the bank saw the bandits at work. He hurried to a hardware store two doors away and obtained a rifle. He had almost reached the door of the bank as the robbers emerged. He called to them to halt and his command was answered by a shot. The bullet struck him in the abdomen and passed through his body. An operation at the hospital revealed that the bullet did not penetrate the stomach.

Wolfe, who happened to pass the bank, also saw the bandits and hurried away to obtain a gun. He came up just after Latshaw had been shot and opened fire. He emptied his pistol at the fleeing bandits and believes he struck one, causing him to drop his revolver. The bandits did not return Wolfe's fire. The robbers entered an auto which they had parked around the corner from the bank and hurried away.

While they were in the bank the bandits forced the persons there into the section of the vault between the inner and outer doors. They closed the outer door and threw the bolt, but did not turn the combination. One of the bank employees succeeded in opening the door from the inside.

Authorities traced the bandits' automobile to a point three miles east of here and then lost track of it.

Cashier Kixmiller said tonight that the bank was fully protected against the loss by insurance.

Both of the bandits are declared to have been young men. Both wore overalls and slickers.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Seymour who suffers backache, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Seymour woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Seymour resident can doubt.

Mrs. James Smith, 36 Booth St., Seymour, says: "I had such backaches, I could hardly keep going. I couldn't do any stooping or lifting on account of the severe pains across the small of my back and sharp catches. I had headaches, dizzy spells and my kidneys acted irregularly. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and bought some at Loertz's Drug Store. They soon rid me of the backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble." (Statement given December 13, 1915.)

Again Praises Doan's.

On July 22, 1919, Mrs. Smith said: "I have more faith in Doan's Kidney Pills now than I have ever had, for they never fail to do for me all that is claimed of them." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. Advertisement.

SOCIAL EVENTS

AGENDA CLASS.

A large representation of the Agenda class of the Trinity Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, east of town, last night where they enjoyed their annual Christmas party. The rooms were decorated in cedar, and Christmas bells were hung from the chandeliers and door ways. In one corner of the room was a large Christmas tree under which were the gifts. Christmas carols were sung and each person told of the one Christmas they enjoyed most. The gifts were mostly humorous ones and were opened by the receiver, then passed around for inspection, causing quite a bit of merriment.

The long dining room was beautifully decorated with ferns. The table, which seated the guests was decorated with sprigs of holly and on either end was an imitation snow man. An elaborate two course dinner was served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schneck and son, Oren, Mrs. Mabel Livensparger, Mrs. Marguerite Smith, Misses Minnie Schleiter, Veronica Fischbach, Bertha Schmidt, Ruth Miller, Evelyn Becker, Edna Kasting, Inez and Irene Pfennig, Edna Hodapp and Grace Miller.

ALPHA CLASS.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the Christmas season was given Tuesday night in the parlors at the First Methodist church by the members of the Alpha class.

The parlors were attractively adorned in Christmas decorations of crepe paper, streamers, bells and flowers. The entertainment for the evening was planned by a committee in charge of Mrs. Ira Haas, chairman, and included contests, games and a playlet entitled "A meeting of a Ladies' Aid Society."

The guests responded to the roll call by telling the happiest Christmas experience in their lives. A dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. O. S. Guernsey, teacher of the class, was presented with a gift. There were about fifty members of the class present and a number of children.

LOYAL DEVOIR.

The annual Christmas party of the Loyal Devoir Society of the Central Christian church was held Tuesday evening in the church parlors. The twelve members of the December committee, of which Mrs. Lena Day, is chairman, arranged the entertainment for the evening.

An amusing feature of the entertainment was a mock wedding. The decorations were carried out in crepe paper and an electrically lighted Christmas tree. Gifts were exchanged.

An elaborate banquet was served to the thirty-eight guests present. Miss Myrtle Huntington, president, Mrs. Zarita Purkisher, secretary, and Mrs. John Murphy, treasurer, of the society, were presented with gifts.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.

The Christmas party for the members of the Primary Department of the Central Christian church was held this afternoon in the church basement from 3:30 until 4:30 o'clock. The hostesses were Misses Bessie and Nina Patrick, Miss Grace Love, Mrs. Lena Day, Mrs. Edgar Otto, Mrs. John Dimer.

After a short Christmas program the time was spent with games and each child received a Christmas package.

A feature of the decorations was an electrically lighted Christmas tree.

Marriage License.

A marriage licence was issued Tuesday afternoon to Harley Anthony, Brownstown township, and Gladys Schwein, Brownstown. They were married by Rev. G. O. Mills, pastor of the Brownstown Christian church.

QUEEN SOPHIE PLACES FLOWERS ON SON'S GRAVE

Pomp and Grandeur of Triumphant Return to Greece Momentarily Forgotten.

By United Press.

Athens, Dec. 22—The pomp and grandeur of a triumphant return to rule in Greece were forgotten momentarily here when a heart broken mother wept over the grave of a favorite son.

Queen Sophie was the mother. Even while delicious crowds swarmed about her carriage, giving every sign of joy at her return, the queen's mind appeared elsewhere. At her first opportunity she and the king visited Tatol burial ground to heap wreaths and flowers upon the grave of their son, Alexander, late king of Greece.

The king announced he will go to Smyrna within a fortnight to assume command of the army. He has promised the public in a speech at the palace that he will continue the expansionist program and protect the redeemed and liberated territories.

WATCHES that go down through generations

WE are frankly proud of this store's reputation as Headquarters for time-pieces.

« We have literally timed the community. Our watches are ticking merrily away in homes everywhere. And what is more important still, these watches have kept correct time. They have been something more than looks.

It is just as well to keep in mind that the purchase of a watch should be made with the greatest possible care. Watches are bought, not for one lifetime but for many. A time-piece should be handed down from one generation to another—from father to son—indeed, to be uncomplainingly.

We have in stock all standard makes and all in all types and designs, from the highly specialized railroad time-piece to the delicate mechanism of the wrist watch for my lady of fashion.

We take more than ordinary care in showing you these watches. We too, realize that a watch is an investment for the future.

Rings are very much the same—they must last. If gems fall from gem-set rings, the investment can scarcely be called a wise one. We therefore call to your attention the remarkably fine Guaranteed line from the house of W.W.W.—White, Wile and Warner, of Buffalo. They have a reputation that years of honest merchandising has built up.

OUR SELECTION OF House Coats

IS AS BIG AS ALL OUTDOORS.

It's a rare thing, even at Holiday time to find so many house coats in one house—but there's a reason for it—

Last Christmas we ran out of coats before we ran out of calls and we vowed that this year we would have plenty of patterns to show right up to the last tick of Christmas Eve.

And from a casual glance—it looks as tho' we had.

As we were saying—the other day when we unpacked them—"the man who wouldn't be satisfied to stay home evenings in one of these—well, he must be of a roaming disposition—that's all there is to it."

Efficiency at the Throttle

THE automobilist appreciates good gasoline most when he steps on the throttle and notes the efficiency in performance of his engine—blueprint efficiency alone means little to him.

Knowing this, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has devoted much of its energy to the development of a motor gasoline which not only stands the grueling test of research laboratories, but which has proved its efficiency in thousands of cars operated under every-day road and weather conditions.

The Company has studied the needs of the motorist at first hand, and has developed Red Crown, its motor gasoline, to a point where it meets exactly the needs of the automobile engine operating under conditions obtaining in the Middle West.

The efficiency of Red Crown symbolizes the spirit which animates the Company as a whole in its endeavor to render an intelligent, efficient service to the public generally.

The tremendous increase in the number of automobiles and trucks from 1,253,000 in 1914 to 7,459,507 in August, 1920, has made more apparent than ever the absolute necessity of a comprehensive, dependable system of distribution.

The development of such a system has changed from something merely desirable to something vitally necessary. The best gasoline in the world is useless if you cannot get it when you want it.

Every step from refining to final delivery is of such importance to the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) that its interest never abates until its gasoline is delivering maximum motor mileage; until its lubricating oils are helping do the work of the world to the satisfaction of the ultimate consumer.

The greatly increased yield of gasoline which this Company has been able to recover from the crude obtainable has been accomplished without sacrifice of quality.

Red Crown and Polarine performance are the best proofs of Standard Oil Company (Indiana) service.

abruptly, trying to smile. "It certainly was awkward, wasn't it?"

"Awkward?" repeated Mrs. Curtis, wrinkling her face. "Awkward isn't the word, Phillip. It was disgusting."

The gorge rose again in his throat. "Tonnibel Devon is the best girl I know," he asserted. "Poor little thing, I pity her with all my heart."

"Pity is akin to love, my dear Phillip," sneered Mrs. Curtis.

"Mother," cried Katherine. "Phillip wouldn't so far forget himself and his friends and position as to love—well—if you can't keep your tongue still, go upstairs."

This was a shock for Phillip. That any girl could speak to her own mother in such a way was beyond his comprehension. The door opened just then and Dr. John walked in.

"She came down to tell me that Paul wanted me and forgot it," he said in a low tone. "The poor child is quite overcome."

Mrs. Curtis tossed her head and rose from the table, and Katherine, rising also, followed her mother out of the room.

There was very little said between the young man and his older friend after the ladies had taken their departure, but when Captain MacCauley was ready to leave, he looked anxiously at his companion.

"Cousin John," he murmured. "You won't let any one—"

"Indeed not," interrupted the doctor, anticipating the lad's plea. "Tony Devon is here to stay, Phil."

"Could I—could I see her, Cousin John, just a minute?" the boy faltered.

"Not tonight, old fellow," replied the doctor, kindly. "Tomorrow, perhaps."

And Phillip had to be content.

That evening Katherine spent with her mother in hopeless misery.

"He acted just as if he loved her," she waited at one time in her conversation. "I'd give anything to find out how long he's known her."

"So would I," said Mrs. Curtis. "Katherine, we've got to get her away by some means. She's bewitched John—she's brought Paul up from his grave—and there's no telling, she may usurp your place in their will."

"And now she's hoodwinked Phillip," gulped Katherine. "Can't you think of some plan? Can't we claim she steals or something like that?"

"John wouldn't believe it, especially now that Reggie is coming home," was the answer. "His letter today said he'd be here very soon. Everything that happens in this house out of the ordinary is blamed on my poor boy."

And she began again to cry.

"Great Heavens, mother, don't do that," screamed Katherine. "Can't you see weeping doesn't do any good? You make me so nervous I could fly. We've got to make some plan to get her out of here. While you're sniveling all the time, you can't think."

Mrs. Curtis rose and walked to her bedroom door.

"My children have no sympathy for me at all," she shot back. "But you say I can't think while I cry? Well, watch me! I'll bet you five dollars Tony Devon is out of this house before another week is over."

TANLAC SALES REACH TREMENDOUS TOTAL

Sales for Present Year Show Increase of Almost One Hundred Per Cent Over Last Year.

20,000,000 BOTTLES ARE SOLD IN SIX YEARS

Celebrated Medicine Has Become Sensation of Drug Trade All Over America and Canada. Best People of Country Indorse It.

Although placed on sale something over five years ago, the demand for the celebrated medicine, Tanlac, has increased at a most phenomenal rate and announcement has just been made by the manufacturers that the total sales will reach approximately 20,000,000 bottles by the end of the present year.

To say that Tanlac now has the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world does not begin to tell the story, for no other preparation has ever even approached the marvelous record that has been made by Tanlac, and it is now conservatively estimated that the sales by the end of the coming year will reach the astonishing total of 30,000,000 bottles.

Tanlac sales last year amounted to 4,079,948 bottles, establishing a new world record for the sale of proprietary medicines up to that time. This record now pales into insignificance, however, as orders received during the first nine months of the present year reached a total of 6,200,000 bottles showing an increase of almost 100 per cent, over the corresponding period of last year.

The enormous and ever-increasing popularity of Tanlac is the one great out-standing proof of its merit. The greatest drug firms of the country have voluntarily come forward and stated in plain, cold figures the record breaking sales everywhere. No medicine of less than superlative quality could possibly attain such a huge sales record nor gain, as has Tanlac, the unqualified endorsement of thousands of well-known men and women from all parts of the country who stand for the best in their communities.

The greatest test of any medicine is the "repeat" sales it enjoys. Tanlac's phenomenal record has been possible because of the fact that the men and women who buy one bottle invariably return for the second and recommend it to others because it has helped them. Tanlac has been on the market now a little over five years. It has stood the acid test of time. It is known and honored in every city, town, village and hamlet on the American continent from Key West, Florida, to the northern wilds of Canada where even the Indians and furtraders have learned of its wonderful powers of medicine.

Tanlac is composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to the scientific world. The formula conforms with all National and State Pure Food and Health laws of both the United States and Canada. Although Tanlac's claims for superiority are abundantly supported by leading authorities, it is the people themselves who have made Tanlac what it is.

Millions upon millions of the best people of the country have used it and have told millions of others what it has done for them. That is why Tanlac has become the real sensation of the drug trade all over America.

Tanlac is sold in Seymour by Maxons Pharmacy, and in Crothersville by C. W. Taulman, and in Brownstown by Chas. Brock, and in Medora by the Rexall Drug Store.

former Ambassador Bernstorff in a Christmas message. "Christmas" he wrote "is approaching for the third time since the end of the great war. Europe is still as far from a real peace as she was two years ago."

"Why is this so?" "Peace means mutual understanding and cooperation of nations. We hope the United States will take the moral lead in the fight for justice and equity in order to arrive at a sensible revision of the treaty of Versailles and at a reform of the league of nations. Otherwise both Bolshevism will triumph in the end."

Christmas inspires an expression of appreciation for the friendly co-operation accorded our efforts in 1920. Fairness tempered any disappointments and encouraged progress.

In this holiday season it is the sincere wish of The Gold Mine and Associates that all may be caught in the net of the season's happy spirit and enjoy a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

For thirty-five years our store has been the largest distributor of good merchandise in Jackson County and all these years many of the same families have been our constant customers and their good words have done more for us than we can express in thanks and to all these and all new friends we extend the season's greetings.
